Johnny Vester McKoy Jr. was born on December 27, 1974, to Sharon McKoy and Johnny Vester McKoy Sr. in Marquette, Michigan. As the second-born child, he was full of personality and marched to the beat of his own drum bringing a vibe wherever he went.

On December 16, 2023, Johnny was called home at the young age of 48. He was a graduate of Bethel High School Bruins, class of "93". He was all about family, fishing, food, and friends.

He was definitely a man who wore many hats, physically and literally. Infamous for his style, his trademark was his Fedora and he wore it well. To many, he was known as JR, Johnny J, or John Blaze. Johnny was an avid fisher, and would always say "I don't get skunked on the water". He was famous for his catchphrases, like "Tomfoolery", "What's Poppin", "What It Was Was", "Let Me Tell Ya Like It T I Is".

He was a son, grandson, brother, nephew, cousin and friend. Johnny let this world early, leaving behind his mother Sharon McKoy( Hampton, VA, brother Keith McKoy, wife Nichele & kids( Carrolton, VA), brother Marus( Hampton, VA), Godparents, ED and Ann Jett( Newport News, VA), Aunts Vedra( Fayetteville, NC and Shelia( Richmond, VA) a host of cousins, and other relatives.
