

Ms. Karen Marie Darden

October 6, 1965 - August 30, 2019

On Saturday, August 30, 2019, Karen Marie Darden was called home to be with the Lord. Karen was born October 6, 1965 in Hampton, Virginia, the fifth child of the late Doris Loretta and James Harvey Weatherford Sr.

Karen, loved life to the fullest and through all the challenges and difficulties in her life, she never faltered whom she was inside or out, or her faith in God. Even on her darkest days her love shined brightly when we walked in to see Karen, her love and happiness was evident as she called out our names with a smile.

Karen was a very down to earth person, until you get her mad, then you better believe she will let you know. During Karen's life, she often fought through the battles of her mind but through that battle she allowed the power of love and faith to be the forefront of her life. She was indeed a Warrior, a Warrior to the end.

Karen was preceded in death by her mother, Doris Loretta Weatherford, her father, James Harvey Weatherford Sr. and her brother; James Harvey Weatherford Jr.

Karen is survived by three sisters, Yvonne Denise Griffith of Petersburg, Va.); Linda Weatherford Wilson and Sheila Nadine Peterson of Hampton, Va.; one brother, Christopher Eugene Weatherford of Sacramento, Ca.; six nieces and nephew, Tanisha, Tyrone, Marcus, Bryan, Darshelle, and Lynnae, and a host of other aunts, uncles, great-nieces and nephew, cousins and friends.

The family will receive family and friends at the home of Yvonne Griffith on Sept. 4, 2019, anytime between 12:00-8:00 pm
3261 Forest Hills Road, Petersburg, Va. 23805

The Home of Linda Wilson on Sept. 6, 2019, 3:00-8:00 pm, and on Sept 7th for breaking of the bread, immediately following the funeral.
7 Owl Creek Ct. Hampton, Va. 23669

“ I remember Karen as being a very sweet person with a smile that lit up her face. You also didn't want to mess with her when she was angry. I hadn't seen her in quite some time but she is someone I will always remember. Deepest condolences go out to the family. May your memories bring you comfort.

“ Karen my sweet Sister, what can I say. No one called out my name the way you did when you saw me, Yvonne..... hearing you call my name made me feel so important. We bonded in a world of our own that we have never had before. Did you make me mad sometimes, sure you did, did I make you mad sometimes, sure I did, but at the end of the day, our love for each other was magical. No one could control me the way you did, not even my kids. No matter how much I said no to you, you knew, Yvonne's going to do it, and I would. I could never find it my heart to say no to you, even though I wanted to. My heart is broken but also mended knowing you are in no more pain.....you're home now, waiting for your wings.....when you receive your wings fly high, and shine brightly into the sky, as you did here as our loving Sister. We will miss you, but you will forever be in our hearts. I love you my sweet Sister. "Rest in Peace"

Your Loving Sister
Yvonne

My dear brave Cousin,

Life is not always measured by the mistakes we make, or the foolishness of our youth. It all boils down to how we finish this race. Sweetheart you kept the faith, you finished your course. You demonstrated what a true warrior looks like in the face of one of the biggest battles. Your quiet courage speaks to me in volumes! What I've learned from you is this powerful message: Never put off what God tells you to do, tomorrow may be too late. Rest in peace dear cousin.

You've fought the good fight, now enter into His rest,

Love,

Cousin Regina A, Jones
