“ In memory of my sister Kathleen McSweeney. Kitty I am very sad that God saw fit to take you so soon there must have been a reason for him to do this I pray that we see each other again when God sees fit in the meantime watch over your family like the guardian angel you are. Take care of our parents, brother Dan, Jose and my James May stars shine bright during Christmas season because we know how much you all loved Christmas and know it will be a great one with all of you together. GOD BLESS your family here on earth
