

Ms. Kena Nicole Cooke

January 29, 1973 - March 12, 2016

Kena Nicole Cooke was born January 29, 1973 and took her rest on March 12, 2016 in Hampton, Va. She was the first born to the late Clarence H. Bryant Sr., and the youngest to the late Essie M. Cooke. She leaves behind her 2 brothers: James L. Cooke, Clarence H. Bryant Jr. and sister Lichelle L. Cooke; her 4 children Shymeek R. Cooke, Ke'Shannon N. Cooke, Isis M. Cooke, and Averi R. Cooke; 3 granddaughters: J'da N. Cooke, Imiya M. Cooke, Nahla M. Jones and grandson Isaiah M. Cooke and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousin like siblings.

Kena enjoyed and made the most out of every moment in life. She gave love and anything she had to make those around her happy. After losing her mother in October of 2015, she proceeded to go on a journey to find peace within herself and with "Her" God. Kena is loved and will be deeply missed by those whose lives she entered. She will be remembered by her wild and crazy ways, outspoken words and infamous phrases like "I'm Fleeky" and "In this family we ain't got cousins, just a whole lot of siblings to fight with and love and I LOVE my family."

A public Viewing will be held on Friday, March 18, 2016 from 12:00 noon until 6:00 pm. The funeral service will be held on Saturday, March 19, 2016 at 12:00 noon at Restoration & Faith Ministry, 2114 Wickham Avenue, Newport News, VA 23607.

“ I gotta stop looking at this page...
It'll never feel real.... Every time we lose a member of this family parts of me leave....
Grandma, Aunt Mickey, now Kena ... I pray we lose no one else no time soon.... It's too much and too close together ... Now my bold/sassy/fierce/big hearted part is missing...

“ I remember the many nights at Roadside and Tjs we would have a great time there and then leave and head to Tammy's. You use to always say Jazz buy me a pork chop sandwich from some place downtown and I would be more than happy to do so. You will be missed seriously. My prayers go out to the family and may God strengthen you all.
