“ Mommy,

I miss you more than words can even begin to express. God has blessed me beyond measure because He chose you to be my mother, and that is something I will forever be proud to say. You always gave your all for your family and I pray that I can follow in your footsteps and be the woman you always wanted me to be. I cherish all the memories and all the wisdom you shared and the sacrifices you made.

I can find some peace in knowing that you are happy, right where you want to be, sitting at the right hand of our Heavenly Father.

There are so many things I want to say, but most importantly I just want to tell you again that I love you so much, and I appreciate all the things that you have done for us and all of things that you have taught me. I will forever hold onto your spirit within me and that is where you will continue to live on until the day God calls me home, right here in my heart. My world will never be the same without you.
