

Mr. Lindsey C. Everett

June 15, 1954 - December 1, 2017

Lindsey Carroll Everett is the second son to Grover Lee and Mabel Lee Everett. He was born on June 15th 1954 in Norfolk, Virginia. He entered into eternal rest on December 1st 2017.

Lindsey (affectionately known as Hump) was educated in the Norfolk Public School System. At the age of 17, he enlisted into the US Coast Guard. He was honorably discharged in October 1973. During his life he worked in several industries. Lindsey could fix anything that moved. His passion however was cars. He worked for years as a auto mechanic. He became the neighborhood auto mechanic, always under the roof of some car.

In December 1972, Lindsey married Gwendolyn Nobles. To union was born one daughter April Lynnell Everett.

Lindsey's laugh was infectious. His personality was one that would attract strangers. He truly was a friend to many and a foe to none. Hump's presence will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

He leaves to cherish his memory wife, Gwendolyn Everett; Philadelphia, PA. His pride and joy, daughter April L. Everett of King of Prussia, Pennsylvania. His grandsons, who were the light of his eyes; Khalyl and Caleb. Brother, Grover V. Everett (Francois) of Lyon France. Aunt Fannie Mae Lassiter of Norfolk, VA. His special sister-friend, Marion Land-Moore. Life long best friends Ralph Noble and Ben Johnson (Busta). A host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

Sorrowfully Submitted,
The Family
