

Ms. Louvinia Collins

September 6, 1922 - September 10, 2019

A flower on earth has went to blossom in Heaven.

Louvinia Collins was born September 6, 1922, to the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert and Annie Collins. She took her trip on the good old gospel ship early in the morning on September 10, 2019, with family to see her before she sailed into the air.

Louvinia was educated in the Newport News Public School system where she graduated from Huntington High School.

She joined Zion Baptist Church at an early age where she remained a member until she was called home.

Having much love for people, Louvinia worked at various hospitals but remained at Riverside Hospital for over twenty years before she retired.

Still having the need to work, she joined the Foster Grandparent program and the Zion Baptist Daycare where she worked for fourteen years until her health failed her.

Louvinia will always be known as a loving person who would do anything for anybody. She was a praying woman. She constantly prayed for her family and their families. She enjoyed going to concerts. Her favorite singers were the Williams Brothers and Shirley Ceasar.

She was preceded in death by her mother and father, three brothers; Samuel, Herbert, and James and two sisters Laura and Elise.

She leaves to cherish her memories her daughter Marjorie Alston (James); her son Michael Collins. One that she will always consider her daughter Armanda Collins. Seven grandchildren; Michele, Pam, Jimmy, James, A'Brion, Michael Jr., and Mar'Savion. Twelve great-grandchildren, five great-great-grandchildren with one on the way, a special niece Evelyn, and a host of many other family members and friends.

When I must leave you; please don't be sad
I have gone with the Master, and my heart is glad
I can touch the Master's hand, and see His glorious face
I leave with you to live holy and run a Christian race
Never give up no matter how hard things may seem
God is looking down on you; all you have to do is believe
But God called my name, and there was nothing I could do
Just remember that weeping may endure for a night, but God will see you through
And each time you think of me; remember that I will always love you!!!
"A WORD FROM ME TO YOU"
