

Mrs. Lucy M. Batts Partee

October 5, 1912 - November 4, 2008

Lucy M. Batts Partee went to meet her heavenly father on November 4, 2008 on the same day as the historical election of Barack Obama. The heavens were elated on both accounts. She was born in Victoria, VA on October 5, 1912 and moved to Newport News, VA during the early 1930's. Mrs. Partee was a faithful member of St. Vincent's De Paul Catholic Church, where she sang in the Gospel Choir and participated in many activities of the parish. Mrs. Partee was a nurse at Mary Immaculate Hospital for many years before her retirement. She gave loving care to her patients who responded to her gentle care by returning the love that she gave to them.

Mrs. Partee was preceded in death by her first husband, Robert L. Batts and second husband, Janis E. Partee. She was also preceded in death by her children: Robert Batts, Jr., James L. Batts and Ersell Merrell.

She leaves to mourn her absence, daughter, Annie Batts Young and many many grandchildren and great grandchildren; especially Sherry A. Merrell who cared for her until her death.

Viewing will be held from 12 noon until 7:00 pm on Friday, November 7, 2008 at the funeral home. A funeral service will be held at 11:00 am on Saturday, November 8, 2008 at St. Vincent De Paul Catholic Church 230 33rd Street, NN, VA. Interment will follow at Hampton Memorial Gardens.
