

Mr. Lynwood Wayne Pegram

April 3, 1953 - July 7, 2015

Lynwood Wayne Pegram, more fondly known as “Zippy” was the third child born to the late Simon and Ruby Pegram on Good Friday, April 3, 1953 at Elizabeth Buxton Hospital; Newport News, Virginia. On Tuesday, July 7, 2015 he went home to meet his father.

He was a member of G.W. Carver High School’s class of 1971 where he loved music. He continued his long passion for Country and Acapella music. With a creative imagination he could construct a fest with just a hint of an idea in very little time. He made a great bowl of Yock with his culinary skills only rivaled by his teaching abilities. He took great pride in his appearance and was very fashion savvy; people were constantly seeking his fashion expertise.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his sister; Hattie Bercenia Pegram. He is survived by his devoted wife of 23 years, Darlene C. Pegram; children: Joretta M. Contreras (whom he raised as a daughter), Wayne T. Bell of Atlanta, GA., Oleda L. Christian and Lakeisha M. Carter of Hampton, Lateisha D. Carter of Chesapeake; grandchildren: Christina Bell, Isaiah Bell, Elijah D. Carter, Isaiah L. Carter, Janessa S. Edney, Johnathan C. Smith, Jemima B. Christian, Joshua F. Christian-Smith and Kirsten M. Edney; sister: Ethel P. Johnson of Suffolk; brothers: Simon Pegram, Jr. (Doreen) of Newport News, John R. “Butch” Pegram (Julie Weaver) of Hampton; special nieces: Andrea “Cookie” Pegram (Percell Chavers, III) of Newport News, and Casey Reanna Pegram of Norfolk. He also leaves to cherish his memory countless relatives and dear friends.

A memorial service will be held on Sunday, July 12, 2015 at 2 pm at Restoration & Faith Ministry located at 2114 Wickham Ave. Newport News, VA. 23607.

“ Lifting Zippy's family up in prayer. Though time may have trickled off the phone calls and visits, I want you to know that your loss is felt by many. Zippy was a beautiful person inside as well as out. Hold on family to God's unchanging hand, He will see you through the hurt, heartache, and absence of Zippy's earthly presence. Blessings,
