

Mrs. Gannie Maggie Clary

May 12, 1944 - September 26, 2024

Ganny Maggie Warren Clary, slipped away peacefully in death at her home at the age of 80 years old. She was born in Southhampton County, Ivor VA on May 12, 1944. She was the youngest of thirteen children born to the late Samuel Stephenson and Maggie Blow Warren.

Gannie loved music, clowning, and dancing. She was quite a character because she always laughed, but most of all she loved her family. After graduating from Hayden High School, Franklin, VA in 1963, she remained at home with her mother until she met the man of her life, Johnny Ivy Clary. They were joined in marriage on November 21, 1964. After marriage, Gannie and her husband moved near Berlin-Ivor for a few years and later moved to Central Hill Subdivision, Windsor, VA, where she raised three beautiful children who will miss her dearly. When Gannie lost her husband in health and could no longer take care of herself due to poor health, she moved to Greenville, NC with her youngest daughter, Lisa.

Gannie started studying the Bible with her sister, Evelyn, who was one of Jehovah's Witnesses for a few years and later dedicated her life to Jehovah and was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses. She developed a strong love for Jehovah. Gannie spoke to anyone whom she came in contact with about Jehovah and his purpose for the earth. Her entire life was centered around Jehovah and how he felt about different matters. She found peace and contentment in the field ministry telling others about Jehovah's. Gannie leaves to cherish her memories: her children, Sylvia Denise Clary, Anthony Clary, and Lisa Annie Clary; three grandchildren, Isaiah, Jahlill, and Jeremiah Tyler, one son-in-law, Rudolph Tyler; two brothers, Samuel S. Warren(Georgia), Smithfield, VA and Lewis Warren (Josephine), St. Albans, NY, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended spiritual family, and beloved Friends.
