

Ms. Maria Victoria Flores

August 3, 1950 - December 30, 2024

Maria Victoria Flores, affectionately known as Vickie, was born on August 3, 1950, in the Bronx, NY. She passed away on December 30, 2024, in Newport News, VA, where she had made her home in recent years.

Vickie was a passionate gardener who found joy in planting and nurturing her beloved plants. Her kitchen was the heart of her home, where the aroma of her favorite meals—rice and beans, pernil, and fried eggplant—filled the air. She was especially known for her fluffy pancakes, a family favorite that brought everyone together.

Music was a significant part of Vickie's life; she savored all genres, with a special fondness for Latin music that resonated deeply with her spirit. In her downtime, she enjoyed watching her favorite TV shows such as Chicago PD, Blue Bloods, Yellowstone, and Power, along with a healthy appetite for scary movies.

Vickie was a fierce individual with a heart of gold, always ready to lend a helping hand to her loved ones. Her family was her greatest treasure, and she took immense pride in her children, Joe Joe and Libby, as well as her grandchildren, Shon, Cierra, Cianna, Amina, and Liana. She was also a beloved great-grandmother to Ava, Shon, and Ameera. A great grandson Jalen.

Throughout her life, Vickie embodied the sayings, "a penny for your thoughts" and "lay your cards on the table," reflecting her straightforward and loving nature. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her, but her legacy of love and laughter will forever remain in the hearts of her family and friends.
