

Mrs. Marjorie Greenlee

February 21, 1933 - March 7, 2019

Mrs. Marjorie Greenlee, 86, entered into eternal rest on March 7, 2019 at James River Convalescent and Rehab Center in Newport News, Va. Mrs. Greenlee was born in Tarboro, North Carolina.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Ella and Jake Bullock, and by her husband, Amos E. Greenlee. She is survived by five children, Theresa Jones, of Wilson, North Carolina, Celestine Clark, Darlene Rhames and Michael Greenlee of Newport News, Va. and Carolyn Law (Carl) of Fredericksburg. Va. And at least 12 grandchildren and about 10 great-grandchildren.

Marjorie was a kind- hearted person, she was a giving person. Very well known in her community, a great listener and willing to give advice to anyone when they needed it.

Little did we know that afternoon that God was going to take you home. Our family chain was once again broken, but as God call us one by one, one day our chain will be linked together again.

Please join us in comforting the Greenlee family by uplifting them with your prayers.

“ *Dear ma,
I remember the independence you showed me growing up. You may not have thought that I was watching but I was. You also taught me freedom and creativity. You were quiet and of motherly countenance. You were patient and kind. You made me who I am.
Ma ma I love you.*

“ Dear Darlene and the entire members of the Greenlee and Rhames family,

We collectively share in the demise, life and legacy of your beloved mother who exhibited joy and laughter to others in the midst of her personal tribulations.

Visiting and speaking with your mom gave me a sense of peace as I was able to detract from the social ills that confronted me.

We pray that the life and legacy of your beloved mother continues to leave precious memories that will linger on in your mind forever.

We shall continue to uplift you and your family in our prayers during this season, knowing that earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal!
