

Ms. Marjorie Saunders

July 15, 1968 - February 24, 2022

Late-evening Thursday, February 24, 2022, an Angel went peacefully in her home located in Newport News, Virginia, and led our mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend on her journey with no hesitation. Being obedient, she never uttered a word, just took the extended hand and began her walk with ease. During this walk, she gave her testimony.

I am Marjorie Taylor Saunders of Newport News, Virginia. I know you know all about me but I would like to reminisce. Some call me "Rie", "green shirt" and some call me "Reebok". I was born July 15, 1968, in Edgecombe County, North Carolina to the late Gloria Jean Taylor(Arthur "Buck" Wilson) and the late James Cofield. I received Christ at P.E.E.P Baptist Church in Newport News, Virginia. I received my GED at Thomas Nelson community college in Newport News Virginia, then began taking up classes for early childhood development and nursing. Following these courses, I began my career with Riverside child Care. Upon moving to Gates county North Carolina, I started working as a school nutritionist assistant. Later on, through the years, I moved back to Newport News Virginia working at Hardee's as a biscuit maker. In 2012 I went into child Care development for myself. I was a loving mother, aunt, sister, provider, and protector. I was the proud parent of LaTonya Monique Scott (Glenn Scott) and Anthony Mervyn Saunders Jr. I have loved every moment spent with my family and friends. I spent my time here well and I won't complain.

Forever cherishing my memories are Ten sisters: Shirley Taylor, LaKisha Ward (Tony Ward), Pamela Johnson (Ivey), Winter Lynch, Ashley Cofield, Drucilla Cofield, Sharquita Whitaker, Sharnique Whitaker, Ariel Whitaker, Sheneaka Thorne; Two brothers: James Cofield and Tony Whitaker; Four grandkids: Glenn Scott III, Xuri Scott, Za'Mya Scott, and Trusten Saunders-Nelson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Preceded in death: My partner Troy Boyd Sr, sister Sherry Bell, and two nephews JaMonty Whitaker and Dontavious Bell.

To all my family and friends, don't worry about me I have been blessed. I love you all. I know you loved me and cared for me, but as you see, God loves me too and has called me home.

Forever in your heart, Marjorie (Rie).

The time that I've known you you've always been so genuine. The same hug and the same "hey baby" and the same big smile. A beautiful person that dedicated her life to family. As humans we are naturally selfish and not want people to stay forever but the fact that we can't hurts the most. Your legacy lives on forever in our hearts. We know you're smiling in the sky 😊
