“ My mother would pack us up and put us on the Greyhound bus, what seemed like every summer- destination: Newport News, Virginia, when I was a young boy. We would stay between Aunt Sara’s and Aunt Elizabeth & Uncle Gus’ house. BOY, THEY WERE GOOD TIMES! I will miss my cousin, affectionately remembered as, Mark-a-Dee, Dee. Thanks be to God, I will see him again! LOVE YOU, FAMILY!

“ Although I am sad to see you leave I know you are in pain no more. My heart will forever hurt and my tears will continue to run, but I know you are in a better place. Watch over us my brother. Your sisters will hold Mark even closer and share more great memories of you for he too will be watched over. Sleep well my brother you've earned it.
