Mary Lee Bumpus, affectionately known as “Lee” peacefully transitioned into God’s eternal rest on Friday, December 11, 2009.

She was born in Lawrenceville, Virginia on May 1, 1927 to Jessie High Robinson and James Henry Robinson who both preceded her in death. Also preceding her death is her husband Junie Bumpus and daughter Gracie Lee Powell. She was a faithful member of Macedonia Baptist Church, 5500 Marshall Ave, Newport News, VA.

Surviving to cherish her memory three children: two sons, Wilbert “Bones” Powell (Lyretta) and James B. Powell (Joyce) of Waterbury, Connecticut; daughter, Barbara Jean Dickinson (Leonard) of New Castle, Delaware. She also leaves her 12 precious grandchildren, 33 great grandchildren, 2 great great grandchildren, 2 nieces, Juanita Stith of Wilmington, Delaware and Rosa Mae Hurdle of Chesapeake, Virginia. Prior to her declining health she loved going fishing, shopping and spending time with family and friends on the porch. Each year she looked forward to the Memorial Day holiday when she would have family reunions in her back yard. She enjoyed laughing, joking, and sharing stories of the good old days and the many present day memories from various gatherings.

Her presence and smile will be sadly missed by those who have embraced her. Today is a day of Celebration for the life and legacy of Mrs. Mary "Lee" Bumpus. This is not just a loss, but a victory in Jesus for the 82 years that she shared with many of us. To God Be the Glory for the great things he has done!

Amen
