

Mrs. Mary Rose Shaw

May 9, 1955 - February 26, 2023

Mary Rose Shaw went into the more abundant life on Sunday, February 26, 2023, leaving a devoted family where love for her knew no bounds.

Mary was born in York County, Virginia on May 9th, 1955, to Odell and Emma Wright. Mary spent her early life attending schools in Newport News, Virginia.

On December 22, 1973, she married Christopher Shaw and embarked on a forty-six year journey of supporting her husband's Marine Corps career (twenty-four years) and twenty-two continuing years of government service. On September 28, 1981, she became a mother and would spend her life as her daughter Ebony's biggest inspiration and number one cheerleader through her many endeavors.

She would also quickly moved up in the banking industry, serving as teller to Branch Operations Manager before retiring in 2018 from First Flight FCU. While she excelled in banking, her real gifting was in loving people and meeting their needs.

She also received her bachelor's degree in financial management in 2000 and was Craven City Vice Chair/Havelock Precinct Chair 2015. She was an active member of Havelock Missionary Baptist Church in Havelock, North Carolina.

Predeceased by her father and mother Odell and Emma Wright, and brothers:

Thomas Wright, William Wright, and James Wright. Mary and Chris's marriage resulted in forty-nine years of companionship, love, and devotion.

She leaves in memory her husband Chris, one daughter, Ebony Clay (Harry), two sisters, Shirley Wright Johnson and Celestine, one brother, Clarence Wright, brother-in-law and his wife, Lawrence and Helen Shah, sister-in-law, Valarie Shaw and brother-in-law, Clarence Shaw, great aunts, Cora Burrell, Rosa Lee, Aunt Mary Abney, a host of nephews/nieces, cousins, friends, and a legacy of mentorship and service.
