“ Thank you for being the best dad a girl could have! I still can't believe that you are not here. I will forever remember the times that you made us laugh, but the one thing that'll stick with me is you saying "I love you" the week before you passed! You are in heaven now and suffering no longer ! Kiss my grand and your great grand Asher and tell my grandmothers that I said that I love them!!!

Love your daughter Terrie 🙏

You

“ Hey Pops, Man it took me a minute to gather myself to be able to write you this but I realized I probly won't ever get over this. First of all I love you with everything in me. You are a big part of the man I am today. You taught me how to work hard and love my family deeply especially my kids. I remember you coming home getting your famous cup of coffee, your favorite food fried chicken, and coming into the backyard and playing basketball with me and my friends (shooting our lights out lol). Man you were my hero and still is. The babies gonna miss you coming over watching movies, watching them swim in the pool, and taking walks with them, and most of all threatening them when they act up lol. Amanda gonna miss you yelling for her and asking where you going girl grab me something in your way back lol. I gotta go because this is the hardest thing I ever had to do. I'm gonna do like y'all always taught us and say See you later because saying goodbye is not a option
Love you always your oldest son Aundra
