“ I offer my deepest sympathy to Michael's immediate and extended family. I have known Michael since both of us was around the age of 8. As a only child, Michael treated me like a Brother and I will miss him dearly.

“ Michael has been my friend for 45 years and there are MANY memories that my heart shares...One special memory is when we were teenagers and we performed at Craftsman Hall as the ET Byrd choir and we shared a stage with the group The Five Blind Boys! Michael leaned over and whispered in my ear, " hey, Dyan these guys really are blind because one of them is getting ready to fall off of the stage if the Holy Ghost don't leave him alone"...It was said with the warmth that was synonymous with who Michael was. It was one of those moment in time memories, because these were professional famous entertainers and being in the presence of God and the fabulous Five Blind Boys was overwhelming for us! In those days Burger King was real ground beef, real fried potatoes and the best vanilla milkshakes with real ice cream you ever want to experience. This appears to be a small thing, but every Sunday "our group" Mickey, Michael and Dyan had us a double whopper with cheese, large fry and a vanilla shake! We actually existed for those special moments. I miss him FOREVER, and I am still processing his exit from this realm and rejoicing for his entry into the best realm ever. Farewell my friend, until we meet again and we will meet again Michael, Sr., we truly will!

Love, your "other" sister, Dyan
