“ I don't even know where to begin, every Sunday for many years I got the privilege of spending "family time" with you and Steve and Brandy and have, we always did something different but always was so much fun; the memories I have of u will forever be treasured! The brew thru shirts u brought me and karter a few months ago now have even more special value to me!! U coming to see me at work the past couple months have ment alot just being able to see u, you always considered me family, funny how when u first met me u said "something about u I just adore" and every time something happens to Brandy still to this day u would contact me, I promise u Misty I will now look after ur baby sister!!! I love you Misty, life will def be different now, fly high!!
