“ I truly miss my "Dessa", she is one of my dearest friends. We have shared many good memories shopping , meals, visiting, church, and children. We had a very good visit with her last month. She told the nurses I have to get dressed my church members (Sick/Shut-in committee) are coming. She was really dressed and happy. I will remember her that way. This is hard for me. God doesn't make mistakes. Love you Karen, Jeremiah, Curtis, Roy and Troy. She loved you all. I'm here if you need me. Annie Price

I'm truly going to miss Odessa. She was such a pleasure to be around. I will never forget the day she came to my house during the passing of my mother in the year 2000 and she fixed me a beautiful meal and especially the homemade potato salad was awesome! She gave me the recipe and until this day I get rave reviews when I fix it. Rest in heaven. We love you! Deacon Phillip and Sister Carol Barnes and family
