

Mr. Oliver L. Washington, Jr.

March 12, 1939 - October 11, 2012

Oliver Lee “Junie” Washington, Jr. was born March 12, 1939 in Newport News, VA. He was the first born to the late Oliver Lee, Sr. and Mary Patrick Washington. He confessed his religion at the age of 9 and was active in the youth programs at Zion Baptist Church. He was a Boy Scout and Sea Scout. He attended Huntington High School. “Junie” was a self-proclaimed “Jack-of-all-trades”. During his life he held jobs as Athletic and Dance Instructor, Doorman, Cook, Apartment Manager and Lead Maintenance. After sustaining an injury while on a trip to New Mexico with the Sea Scouts as a teenager, his mobility was challenged after many years. However, he didn’t allow this to sway him. He then became the family and friends “Handy Man” His lifelong love was fishing. He devoted several days a week, whether on a pier or charter boat, to doing this, until his health started to decline. “Junie” solely provided fresh fish for family gatherings and various community and alumni functions. He talked fishing until the very end. He was preceded in death by a son, Emanuel Miles. He will be missed and fondly remembered by his children, Timothy, Katrina and Lanell Miles, Kenneth (Roselyn) Washington and Kimberly Washington- Jackson: Brother, George Wendell Washington: Sisters: Dorothy W. Murray, Patricia Washington and Dorlyne Washington-Brown:Grand children: Kenny, Terry, Jade, Tikeila, Tyiesha,Natasha,Micah,Kim,Tynasha, Destiny, Katisha, Monique, Demoine, Tinegua, Tiketa, Torreyhon and Alexis and 20 Great-Grand Children. A special aunt, Lois Vassar (who affectionately called him “Lamb”). Two nieces: Kineta

(Elton) Thompson, Kendra Washington: two nephews: Nahsir Hill and Elton Thompson, Jr.: An extended daughter, Ashley Butler and a host of relatives, extended family and friends. Known by many as "Pops", "Chilly" and "Romeo", he would make you smile by telling a joke, doing a magic trick, flirting or just being himself. You are loved and will be missed. The Family
