“ It is with heartfelt sympathy that we send our love and condolences to the Warner family. Paul was such a giving and warm person and has been a dear friend to our family for so many years that we can't remember. We are saddened at this time by his lost, because he gave so much to everyone. You don't meet good people that often in your lifetime...and our entire family is overjoyed that we had the opportunity to be blessed with his friendship.
