

Mrs. Pearline Bond Freeman

June 15, 1936 - March 27, 2013

Pearline Bond Freeman, 76, of Hampton, Virginia, died Wednesday, March 27, 2013. She was born June 15, 1936, in Hampton, VA. The daughter of the late Robert and Gracie Williams Sr. Pearline graduated from George P. Phenix High School with the class of 1954.

In May of 1968 she was united in marriage to the late Anetol Carol Freeman. She was a faithful worker and church member. As an employee of Roses inc. She served for 26 years and never called in sick. As a member of Gospel Spreading Church of God, she attended every service possible including the Wednesday night service, which she attended faithfully. Her love for children led her to take on the role of a foster mother; providing years of service to the city of Hampton by choosing to become a nurturing mother to the motherless for many young girls.

She is survived by her daughters; Lotena Lavel Carter, wife of Marcus Holloway Carter, of Hampton, and Tashiana Christina Freeman, of Newport News, two grand daughters; Charline Jittuan Johnson, and Moriah Kerre Smith. She also leaves her older sister, Aliese Jackson, and brother Aurthur Williams both of Hampton. She also leaves a sister in love Mrs. Shirley Cox (Mr. Odell Cox) of Alexandria, VA. along with a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

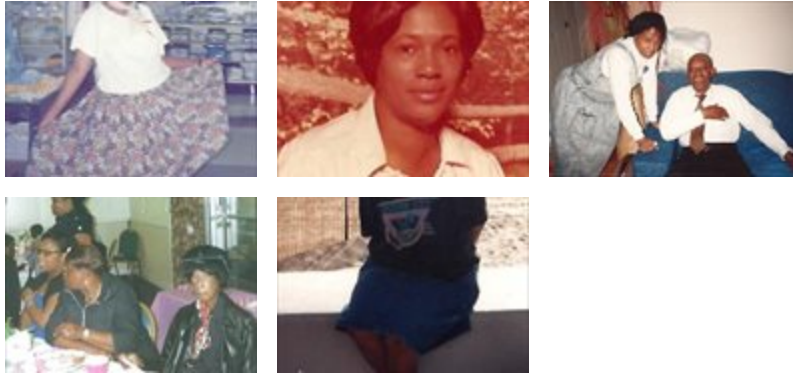

Viewing of Mrs. Freeman will be held on Thursday, April 4, 2013 from 1 PM until 6:00 PM. Homegoing services will be held on Friday, April 5, 2013 at Gospel Spreading Church of God at 11:00 AM.

Interment will follow at Hampton Memorial Gardens.

“ Lotena and Tashiana, I'm sorry to hear of your mom's passing. God will sustain you. Revelation 21:4 says that one day death, mourning, and tears will be gone. May your memories and the God's promise of the resurrection comfort you at this sad time. You're in our thoughts.

“ We will miss her laughter, her smile and the way she added strength to our family ties. She was beautiful inside and out as the beauty of holiness clothed her. And we know that she rests with our Lord and Savior in paradise.
