

Mrs. Pecolia Christine Pegues

March 22, 1925 - May 5, 2020

Mrs. Pecolia Peguese, 95, the mother of Ms. Lula Peguese, passed away peacefully at her residence on Monday, May 5, 2020.

Pecolia C. Pegues better known as "Deuce and Granny" was born March 22, 1925, in Broadnax, Virginia.

She attended school up until the 4th grade in Virginia. She was raised by her stepmother, Sarah Lambert. She later relocated to Brooklyn, New York, where she worked for 30 years starting out doing domestic work and 20 years in the Post Office.

She retired in 1990 from the Post Office. She moved to Newport News with her Late husband Thilbert, her daughter-in-law Jackie, and her great-granddaughter Lashelle.

Living in Newport News, VA over the years, she helped raise her grandchildren up until her health failed.

She enjoyed reading, word search puzzles, watching Steve Harvey as well as listening to his morning show on 95.7 FM. She also loved plants, cooking, cleaning, and just being a grandmother and great grandmother. She also enjoyed her little Yorkie named "Skittlez" that followed her around the house.

She was preceded in death by her son, Ben (Ben Ingram).

Ms. Pegues leaves to mourn her daughter Lula Peguese, her nephew Matthew Walker, her grandson Christopher Ingram and her great-grandchildren LaShelle Ingram, Elijah Ingram, Dyamond Ingram, Christina Ingram, and Christopher Ingram Jr. and her daughter-in-law Jackie Ingram.

Acknowledgments
