

Mr. Preston Edgerton

August 5, 1935 - June 7, 2025

Mr. Preston Edgerton, a cherished husband, father, grandfather, and friend, passed away peacefully on June 7, 2025, in Newport News, Virginia, at the age of 89. He was born on August 5, 1935, in North Carolina.

Preston was the devoted son of the late Willie Lee Edgerton and Lena Bell Edgerton (Alston). He was preceded in death by his beloved brothers- George Lee, Chester, and Wilbert Edgerton- and his son, Harry Edgerton.

He survived by his children: Anthony Edgerton, Steven, and Joy Kelley, along with three cherished grandchildren: Aaniya Kelley, Melissa Carlise, and Kaleb Carlisle. Nephew Johnny Edgerton and his wife Sandra, niece Martha Edgerton, and a host of additional nieces and nephews.

A man of wisdom and remarkable intellect, Preston was both an inventor and a passionate painter, continuing his creative work until the age of 88. True to his character, he brought the same dedication to his marriage as he did to his craft. He married the love of his life, Sandra Kelley, and their bond became a shining example of unconditional love, mutual respect, and selfless devotion. Together, they built a life grounded in loyalty and quiet strength —a love story that endured, even now, as Preston embraced his guardian wings.

ME

“ My heart is so broken. Uncle Preston was so special to me; he's been in my life since I was a tot--lived with us briefly before moving out of our home state. I was in my early teens when I lost my father (his brother). From that point onwards, in so many ways, uncle Preston filled that void. I made it my personal mission to visit him and my grandma (his mother) as often as I could--just "loving-up" on them. I will miss him dearly. ❤️🌹
