

Ms. Queen Ester Thomas

December 7, 1926 - September 25, 2019

Queen Roberts Thomas, 92, was called to eternal rest on September 25, 2019. Her loving spirit will be remembered by all who loved her. She was a native of Waverly, VA and owned a home in Newport News, VA.

Queen was born in Sussex County, VA and raised in Waverly, VA. She graduated from Wakefield High School and later moved to Newark, NJ. After completion of Essex County College's Allied Health Nursing Program at Newark Beth Israel, she received a Bachelor of Science Degree in nursing from Kean University. Queen raised her 10 children on Van Ness Place where she bought her home and met her best friend, Mrs. King. She also worked for the Health Department in the City of Newark. She only moved back to Virginia after the death of her mother. From then on she resided in Newport News, VA.

Rooted in a spiritual upbringing, Queen was a faithful servant of God. She is a member of Faith Baptist Church. She never missed a Sunday in a church no matter what state she was in. She is well known in the bingo community. She loved to play bingo and travel.

Queen was preceded in death by her parents Sylvanius and Annie Jones Roberts, her sisters Virginia Roberts Phillips and O'Neal Rutledge (Arthur), her husband George R. Thomas, her daughters Alberta Thomas, Betty (John) Dunn and Patricia Thomas, her son Tracy Thomas and grandsons Jamal

Lewis and Demarco Anthony. She is survived by her son George Thomas (Shirley), Linda Brown (Foster), Robin Thomas, Carolyn Springer, Lola Green (George), and Melody Thomas. She also leaves to cherish her loving memory a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren, as well as cousins, nieces, and nephews.
