*Thomas and I will forever miss Reggie's charm and wit and concern for our well being! He always made sure Thomas's suit jacket looked good, and he always kept us smiling(sometimes laughing out loud) in the choir stand. You're at rest and peace now, brother! Our prayers are always with the family.

“ Reggie was a friend, a gentleman, and a great teacher. He had great insight into human relationships and what was really important in life. I always enjoyed going to see Reggie, just to relax, hear him talk about his family and yes, get a haircut. Reggie will be missed, in many ways.

“ *For over 25 years Reggie has been the friend I could go to and share my joys and sorrows. Reggie always had a sympathetic ear and sage advice. Can't imagine anyone I'd rather talk with about football.
I'm proud to call him friend and my Brother in Christ. Rest in peace in the arms of our Lord, my brother.*

“ To Ronnie, Mr. Harris and the Entire Family of Reggie Harris, My memories go back as far as 1969. We were neighbors that turned into fast friends and family. My brothers and myself went to high school together,, parties,, Neighborhood cookouts,, and holiday neighborhood gatherings. We will miss you Reggie Harris. The fond memories of you will remain in my heart forever. Just know this is a hard loss for us. We were just together in August at a breakfast gathering of all of us from the Christopher Shores Neighborhood. Rest In Heavenly Peace My Dear Friend and Brother,

“ We offer Condolences to The Harris family, as Reggie was one that we shared time together as we met later in life BUT became good friends, whether we were spending time talking on the phone, singing praises to our Lord and Savior in various choir's, or his visiting, and at times picking up a cake that he always stress how much he enjoyed. During one of his last conversations, he said "Tell Ms. Lewis I am going to miss those cakes ". I can only imagine the Table that Our Lord have spread for Reggie is way better than any of us can imagine. We ask that you reflect on the many happy memories of a life WELL LIVED as he will truly be missed.
