In Loving Memory of My Wonderful Husband

You were a husband in a million, why did you have to go?

You meant the world to me, I really loved you so.

If I had to live my life over again, I would find you sooner, so that I could love you longer.

You are not forgotten my love, nor will you ever be, as long as life and memory last your soul will live in me.

“ Hey Rick, it seems like this was just the beginning of a renewed friendship from our early days in Fort Greene. I learned you and I worked in the same state less than thirty miles from each other. Later finding out we were neighbors again in the state of your parents home. Send my greetings to who we know on the other side, I will do my best to keep the love on this side. Thanks for sharing and West in Peace
