“ Rick,

The years we spent together will forever be in my heart. I love you soooo much and I will never ever forget you. You are the Greatest Brother a sister can have and I'm glad you are my brother. I would not trade you for anything you are the GREATEST.

I am still hurting and crying - you left me, left me, left me. You did not say a farewell or goodbye, see you someday on the other side.

You just left. You were a person that never complained and always kept a smile on your face. I am so hurt that I will never see you face to face again. Now that you have gained your wings I know that you are my guardian angel and you will fly around and protect me now that you resides in heaven. You know that you always protected and looked after me. Keep on soaring around in the big blue yonder.

You are an AWESOM BROTHER so now you are AN AWESOME ANGEL!!!!!!!!!!!! Keep Flying then rest and relax - you are Free!!!!!!!!!!!!

I will forever love and keep you in my heart.

Loving you more and more,

Your Big Sister,

Debbie Keemer-Brown

The wind blows and you cry, but please don't cry too long.
And I know you better to try and be strong, because don't you cry
and don't say that I'm gone.
When you're feeling alone
just remember our love, I'm up there the stars
looking down upon above.
Remember our love in a moment you'll see that I'm still here beside you.

“ Sister Debbie Keemer Brown and family,
May you continue to lean on God and trust not your own understanding during this most difficult time. For if I had wings like a dove then I would fly away and be at rest.
Sorrowfully,
Sister Linda Lassiter Lucas

“ Mrs. Keemer, Deborah, Ronnie and Renee, my sincere condolences to all of you in the passing of Rick. It has been years since our paths have crossed, but know I instantly reflected on childhood memories when I heard of his passing. He was a great guy and will be sadly missed. May Jesus be a fence around you and the extended Keemer family during this season of mourning. God bless you... Shakey
