“ I've worked with Pumpkin for the last 20 years and have always had great conversations with him. He was a proud Hopewell Blue Devil and Dallas Cowboy fan and let all his coworkers know by wearing his favorite Blue Devil hat and Cowboy wear every Monday after a win. We often talked about family and he ALWAYS talked about his children and how proud he was of them. I will miss those talks but will remember the laughter especially that signature laugh that could heard a mile away. Rest easy friend.

“ I have worked with Pumpkin for many years and it was always a pleasure. It was great to see him coming when you were having a bad day because you knew you were going to have an entertaining interaction. He could make you smile during the worst of times. He will be missed by his work family, but we will still smile when we think of our memories of him. I send my condolences to the family for your tragic loss.
