

Ms. Roberta G. Lee

July 24, 1947 - July 2, 2018

On Monday, July 2, 2018 our mother Mrs. Roberta G. Lee (70); also known as "Lil Sister" passed peacefully into the arms of her loving Savior. She was born on July 24, 1947 in Newport News, Virginia to the late Rudolph and Alberdie Godwin Wilkins. Roberta graduated from the old East Suffolk High School in Suffolk, VA. She also studied to be a Mortician in later years.

Roberta was the Owner and Editor in Chief of Sunrise Enterprise Inc. where she wrote community newsletters and showed her talent for printing office supplies, wedding invitations, etc. Roberta was also a great Entertainment Event Coordinator and Hostess at the Foxx Trap in Norfolk, VA where she booked such talents as Stephanie Mills and Frankie Beverly. She was also a longtime member of the NAACP. Roberta had a green thumb and enjoyed gardening, interior decorating, and socializing with family and friends.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories, her loving husband Raymond N. Lee. She was preceded in death by her sister, Tonnette Godwin of Clinton, MD. Roberta is also survived by her two daughters, Carla L.G. Bailey of Newport News, VA and Arlene R. Miller of Hampton, VA; Four sisters, D. Jean Haynesworth (Ronald) of Landover, MD; Lillian Barnes (Alton) of Hampton, VA; Mary Young (Lamar) of Triangle, VA, and Joan Nurse (Charles) of Upper Marlboro, MD; Six grandchildren, Monica R. Greene and Alexis C. Greene both of Richmond, VA; Malik Miller and Isaiah Miller both of Hampton, VA; Samantha B. Prince and Sterling E. Bailey Jr. both of Newport News, VA; great-grandson, Tevin A. Prince Jr. of Newport News, VA; Last but not least her dear friend Pamela Canty of Hampton, VA; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and loving friends.
