“ "Have faith in God" Jesus answered. "I tell you truth, if anyone say to this, mountain, "God throw yourself into the sea . and does not doubt in his heart but believe that what he say will happen, it will be done for him. Mark 11:22-23 Have faith and think of all the happy times and it will get you through.

“ Anyone that knew Sean knew he was all about his family. He may not have agreed with them all the time but he had more love for them than anyone. He shared that love with me for almost 5 years. We brought our love to life when we had Shanelle. Sean you showed me there is one good 1.

Don't grieve to long everyone because you know Sean wouldn't have that. He would tell some corny joke or do some crazy dance. The family can tell you about the yearly family reunions. The got to have grits and oj and 2 hours to get the family photo right.

Babe I love you that will never change. I know God had a reason for bringing you home to him. I hope someday I'm right there with you still trying to learn domino's, to steal the remote back, unable to avoid getting my picture taken, and hearing you tell me grits and sugar don't go together. Until then I will take care of our daughter and raise her the right way. I'll show her your picture so she can remember that smile and give her the advice that I think you would give if you could. Oh and will try to continue to spoil her Like You Did.

I wish I could tell you this face to face but I hope your getting my message. That I love you with all my heart and I always will. Stay sweet in heaven.

We know you really loved each other and when you lost him there was a part of you gone also. Remember to just to hold on to Gods unchanging hands. We know that Sean has gone on to heaven and looking down on us. He will be missed and never forgotten. Love, Bobby and Fran

“ My brother loved his family (especially his fiancée and children) and was the life of the party at all family events. He loved playing basketball. I just wish he and his sons could've beat me in basketball just once! Take care until we see each other again! I love you Sean and will miss you, the cookouts and conversations dearly!

“ Sean,
You are so greatly loved here on Earth, but God knew that your work here was done so He took you Home. I will always remember your smile and your sunny disposition. You always lit up any room that you entered and you leave this world a better place for having been in it. I am not saying goodbye because I know that I will see you again someday. I love you dearly and you will always have a special place in my heart.
