“ Aunt Pump always had my favorite lemon cookies when I visited. I remember whenever I came over I knew I was going to eat good. You would make the best breakfast, bacon, cheese eggs and biscuits. You loved me unconditionally and I know it brightened your day when I visited. I don't think I've ever experienced someone so happy to see me . You use to let me play Super Mario Brothers for as many hours as I wanted. I miss you dearly. I was your NeekaBoo...that's what you would call me. I love you Auntie❤️
