

Ms. Stella Louise Davis

January 22, 1952 - May 13, 2025

Stella Louise Davis, 73, of Hampton, Virginia, passed away peacefully on May 13, 2025, after a fulfilling life. She was born on January 22, 1952, in Nash County, North Carolina.

Stella was a member of the Hampton community, known for her strong work ethic, independence, and fun-loving personality. Stella was a graduate of Hampton High School and also served in the United States Army. Her service continued as an employee of the federal government, having worked as a patient administrator at the Health Center on Fort Monroe Army Base and the McDonald Army Health Center on Fort Eustis Army Base, where she retired after 33 years. Post retirement, Stella enjoyed playing pinochle at the community center, as well as spending time with friends and family.

She is survived by a brother, Richard Edward Lewis, and nephews, Lavonte Davis, Sr. (Vickie), George Davis (Chantel), Jerrett Davis, and Marcus Davis, as well as other extended family members. She was predeceased by her mother, Gertrude Carmichael-Lewis, father, Alvin Davis, Jr., an infant brother, and sisters, Thelma Davis and Angie Jennette Davis.

Stella was a private person and never liked being the center of attention. In accordance with her wishes, there will be no funeral or memorial services. Those who choose to do so may celebrate Stella's life by donating to the American Cancer Society in her name.
