“ Wow, I will always remember whenever you would come over to the house I would offer you a seat but you always preferred to lay on the floor, you said it was more comfortable and you would lay there and fall asleep, we've had some great times together Steph and that beautiful will be missed. You are no longer suffering you are now in God's arms comforting arms and smiling down on us. Till we meet again my sweet Stephanie, Love you, Rest in his loving arms!!!

I am so sorry to hear about my friend Steuphanie. we worked together at Naval Weapon Station. She was a wonderful friend. One of the best friends I ever had. I lost track of her after a few years. When I was real sick, she was there to help and comfort me. Thank God for allowing me to know such. Great and inspirational friend.
