“ Sending my love and condolences to this wonderful family. Sue and I were friends over 20 years. She was my sister. I have so many fond memories with her. When I tell you we had some good times together believe me it was never a dull moment when we linked up. From singing to just chatting we had some amazing times together and I’m going to really miss her so much. To her children Frannie, Mi Mi and Kareem. God bless you and I pray added strength for the three of you. Your mother was Special lady and I loved her dearly. Stay Encouraged ❤️

“ I am still numb over the loss of my friend. I met Sue when her daughter Fran was 3 weeks old. My daughter said Mom this lady need a babysitter and I said tell her to bring the baby to me. We became best of friends. The girls were in my wedding in 2021. You could not have asked for a better friend and a great stylist. She will be greatly missed and always loved. This is so hard. I love you baby

“ To The Family of Sue -- We're very sorry for your loss. We've known Sue for many years and we followed her from shop-to-shop to get our hair done. That "Lady" could color some hair. She will be greatly missed.

Rest for now our Friend...Ecclesiastes 3:20/Roman's 6:20
