

Mr. Sylvester B Tillery

August 21, 1949 - April 13, 2017

Sylvester Bond Tillery Jr. better known as "Bug", was born on Aug 21, 1949 in Newport News, Virginia. Born to parents Phillis Graham Tillery (mother) and Sylvester Bond Tillery Sr. (father) both deceased. He was preceded in death by Barbara Ann Tillery (sister) and Marvin "Todd" Tillery (brother). Survived by his sisters Patricia Ann Fulwood, Shelia Tillery-Moore & Angela Renee Tillery, and his aunt Irene Tillery. Also survived by countless nieces and nephews and cousins.

Bug loved the Lord, he was Baptized by his brother in law Evanglest Lindsey S. Fulwood Sr. (deceased) and Elder Donnette Mills and he was a member of Family Light Baptist Church.

Sylvester got his education from Walter Red School for Disabled Black children in Newport News, Virginia. Despite being diagnosed the Cerebral Palsy and being told he would not survive past 2 years old, he was always joyful and active. He had a joy for music of all types, he loved to watch westerns and sitcoms but his biggest passion was cars. He would always have a toy car with him and he loved going for rides. He had a laugh and a smile that would brighten up anyone's day.

A funeral service will be held on Wednesday, April 19, 2017 at 12 noon at the Family Light Baptist Church 1030 44th Street, Newport News, VA 23607

Interment will follow at the Greenlawn Memorial Park.

Please join us in uplifting the family with your prayers.
