

Ms. Valerie Densie Carter

September 4, 1961 - February 28, 2014

Just like He said He would, the Death Angel visited our family once again. This time he took the soul of our beloved Valerie to a more peaceful place. She slipped into eternal rest without a word of warning on February 28, 2014. We know that she is at peace and she has passed through God's test of life. Her life began on September 4, 1961 in Williamsburg, Virginia, the daughter of Leonard (deceased) and Carrie Wallace. At an early age, Valerie gave her life to Christ. She was a graduate of the class of 1979 at Lafayette High School in Williamsburg, Virginia. She worked for many years in the WJCC public schools as a bus driver and also many faithful years in the Newport News public transportation department. Also, working as a truck driver for Branscome, Inc. Later on in life she rededicated her life to Christ and was a member of Resurrection Ministries active in the choir; and later became a member of Union Baptist Church in Williamsburg. She was strong in her faith and always willing to help whomever in need. She leaves to cherish her precious memories: her daughter, Natisha Carter; her mother, Carrie Wallace of Williamsburg. Four sisters; Angela Nazareth (Darnell), Deborah Franklin, of Williamsburg, Virginia; Alice Faye Wallace, Jacqueline Clemons of Newport News, Virginia. One brother, Curtis Franklin of Williamsburg, Virginia. A loyal, dedicated and loving fiancé Clarence Dudley who never left her side. One aunt, Isabelle Brown of Boston, Massachusetts. A host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews, great-great nieces and nephews along with many loving relatives and caring friends. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her, but we find comfort with the assurance that she is resting peacefully in the arms of The Lord.
