

Mr. Vincent T. Mason

March 30, 1964 - September 2, 2017

Vincent T. Mason, son of the late Vernon P. and Thelma E. Mason, entered into rest on September 2, 2017. He received his formal education through the Hampton Public school system where he excelled in math. He followed in his fathers' footsteps and became a Master Carpenter working for the family business Mason & Son.

He devoted most of his time and energy being a blessing to others, from building and renovating houses to repairing cars. Everyone knew Vincent was on his own time because he would knock on your door at any given time just to check on how things were going while invading your refrigerator.

His laugh was special and unique in its own type of way. If you ever want to remember Vincent, just take a look around your house...he probably repaired something in there.

He leaves to cherish his memory with his three daughters; Shanequwe, Shameka (Justin) and Marshe. His beloved grandchildren Jada, Joi, Juveahya, Imani, Madysen and Deven. Two brothers Vernon (Debbie), Virgil (Bridgette), one sister Vermel (Jason). A dear friend Christi Dixon, Godbrother Dexter Brown, aunts, uncles, cousins, a host of nieces, nephews, and beloved friends.
