

Mr. Walter Lee Kelley, Jr.

February 17, 1965 - February 5, 2021

Walter Lee Kelley, Jr. 55, was born February 17, 1965, to the late Walter Lee Kelley, Sr. and Shirley Mae Kelley, in Newport News, VA. He departed this earthly life on February 5, 2021, at the Hospice House and Support Care of Williamsburg, in Williamsburg, VA.

Walter or Lil Walter as he was often called was loved by all who came in contact with him. Walter was the life of any party. He enjoyed time with his family laughing, joking, dancing, and eating. He was known as the "Grill Master" for every family cookout. He would be fussing the whole time but he made sure everyone ate and was happy. Walter would do anything he could for his family and friends.

He truly had a heart of gold!

Walt was preceded in death by his parents, his sisters Buelah Kelley, Brenda Byrd, and Carolyn Green, his niece Mareka Kelley, his nephew Julius Black and his brother-in-law Tommie Robinson, Sr.

Walter leaves to cherish his memories his siblings Reginald Green of Hampton, VA, Vanessa Robinson of Aulander, NC, Valarie Woods of Philadelphia, PA, Donna Marshall (Curtis) of Hampton, VA, Keith Kelley of Newport News, VA, Sharon Spencer (Aundre) of Hampton, VA, Emmette

Kelley (Jennine) of Newport News, VA, Terrence Kelley of Philadelphia, PA. His Aunt and Matriarch of the family Ernestine Sanders (Edd) of Philadelphia, PA. His grandchildren from a previous marriage Martina Crosby, Jahki Brown-Knightnor, Unique Brown, and Tahlik Green, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

He will be missed by all.

“ My Dear Cousin, L'il Walter,

*What is there left to say
That is not cliché
When your heart is broken
A Loved one taken away*

*Holding on to memories
Laughter, smiles and good times
Nothing will fill this void
Keeping you on my mind*

*I pray God will give us peace
And I know he is in control
I thank Him for the gift,
Your presence, your soul*

*Rest now, my loved one
You are finally free
In the arms of our Father
The best place to be*
