

Mr. Welton L. Thompson

September 14, 1939 - October 7, 2014

Welton Thompson passed peacefully in the company of his two daughters, his former wife Renita Howard, his youngest grandson and oldest granddaughter that celebrated her 23rd birthday on the same day, October 7, 2014 at 7:43 PM.

Welton was the best mechanic in the state of Virginia and Ohio. He was born in Isle of Wight, Virginia to the late James L. Thompson and Carrie Bell Anderson Thompson. He is the youngest of eight siblings. Welton was preceded in death by both parents, sisters Virginia Thompson and Mary Thompson English; brothers James E. Thompson, Oscar R. Thompson, Jessie W. Thompson, Bennett E. Thompson, Sr.,

He moved back home to Newport News, Virginia to be closer to his family and friends. Welton "Mr. T" as he was affectionately called, was a great driver. He was generous, and well respected by many.

Welton loved everyone, and brought laughter and smiles to his girls. He was a proud grandfather, and you could often hear him bragging about his new grandson Lejend Thompson. Mr." T" spoiled his baby girl so much that during his towing transactions, his baby girl "Meme" was in tow in the front seat

Visitation will be held Friday, October 17, 2014 from 12 pm until 6 pm. Funeral services will be held Saturday, October 18, 2014 at 12 pm in Rising Star Christian Church, located at 2514 Roanoke Ave. Newport, News, VA. 23607.

“ May our Lord comfort all your family with sweet memories and the promise of heaven. May He carry you through the difficult days ahead. I are so grateful to have had Welton in our lives for so many years as the father of my children. He always looked out for his family. He had a compassionate heart. I will always hold him in my heart.
