

Mrs. Wilhelmina Gilliard

July 18, 1935 - January 25, 2024

Wilhelmina Johnsons-Gilliard was born In Cordesville, South Carolina, to the late Gertha Lee (Zue) Hamilton-Johnson and the late Arthur Johnson on July 18, 1935.

She moved to Charleston as a girl and met and married Wesley (Junior) Gilliard. She later moved to New York where she worked at Chelsea Laboratories until her mother became ill, and relocated back to Charleston, SC to care for her mother and son until both of their passing.

She worked at the Charleston Home for children, and as a private duty caregiver throughout the Low Country for many years until her retirement and traveled all over the United States with her family and friends.

She leaves to cherish and honor her memory, children Mary (Travis), Russell, Amanda, and Robert, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, a brother Arthur Johnson Jr., and a host of other relatives and friends.

Dear Family of Mrs. Wilhelmina Gilliard,

In this time of shared sorrow, we extend our deepest sympathies to you and your family on the passing of Mrs. Wilhelmina Gilliard. The news of her departure has cast a shadow, and our thoughts are with you during this challenging time.

Mrs. Gilliard was undoubtedly a remarkable individual, leaving behind a legacy of kindness, resilience, and unwavering spirit. Her absence will be deeply felt by all who had the privilege of knowing her.
