William Edward Milbourne “Billy” was born November 4, 1949 in Newport News, VA to John Earnest Milbourne and Julia Josephine Perkins Milbourne; he was their third son. Billy attended public schools in Hampton, VA and graduated from George P. Phenix High School in 1968. He loved to play sports: basketball, baseball, and track.

Past employers included Republic Management Systems, Cincinnati Bell Information Systems, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Butler Service Group, Management Technology Industries, and ViaTech Systems Inc.

He was very family oriented and as a bachelor loved to spend time spoiling his nieces and nephews. Billy never met a stranger; he loved people and always lent a helping hand to his friends that needed his help.

Billy was a meticulous dresser. He had his own unique style and loved to shop in upscale Georgetown where most of the merchants knew him on a personal basis. Billy was in a rehabilitation center the past four years of his life after suffering a stroke. He enjoyed wearing an assortment of caps in the center and was embraced with much tender love and care from his caregivers, residents and staff members. He always displayed a sweet spirit and was never one to complain.
